Introduction:

The people around the world want to know Why USA unconditionally support Israel? We have summarized the following potential reasons,

Early US Recognition (1948): The US, under President Harry Truman, was among the first countries to recognize Israel on May 14, 1948—just 11 minutes after its declaration of independence. This move was driven by both humanitarian concerns following the Holocaust and geopolitical considerations. (Source: US National Archives)

Post-Holocaust Sympathy & Moral Responsibility: The Holocaust, in which 6 million Jews were murdered, created global support for a Jewish homeland. The US, with a significant Jewish population and political influence, saw Israel as a solution. (Source: United States Holocaust Memorial Museum)

Cold War Strategy (1950s–1990s):

During the Cold War, the US saw Israel as a counterbalance to Soviet-backed Arab states like Egypt and Syria. For example, during the 1973 Yom Kippur War, the US launched Operation Nickel Grass, sending massive military aid to Israel, ensuring its survival against a coalition of Arab nations supported by the USSR. (Source: CIA Cold War Archives)

Military & Defense Ties:

The US provides Israel with $3.8 billion in military aid annually under the 2016 Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), making Israel the largest recipient of US foreign aid. In return, Israel shares cutting-edge technology and military intelligence, such as drone warfare advancements and missile defense systems like Iron Dome, used to intercept rockets from Hamas. (Source: Congressional Research Service, 2023)

Economic & Technological Cooperation: The US-Israel Qualifying Industrial Zone (QIZ) trade agreement boosts economic ties. Major US companies like Google, Intel, and Microsoft have R&D centers in Israel, making it a hub for cybersecurity and AI. (Source: US Chamber of Commerce, 2022).

Political Influence & Lobbying:

Pro-Israel lobbying groups like AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee) spend millions of dollars annually lobbying Congress to ensure continued US support. In the 2022 election cycle, pro-Israel groups spent over $30 million on campaign contributions. (Source: OpenSecrets, 2023)

Evangelical Christian Support:

Around 80 million Evangelical Christians in the US believe in biblical prophecy, where Israel plays a central role. Prominent figures like former Vice President Mike Pence and Senator Ted Cruz have publicly supported Israel based on religious beliefs. (Source: Pew Research Center, 2021)

Strategic Middle East Interests:

Israel helps the US monitor and counter threats from Iran, Hezbollah, and other militant groups. The 2007 Israeli airstrike on Syria's nuclear reactor, known as Operation Orchard, was done with US backing to prevent nuclear proliferation in the region. (Source: International Atomic Energy Agency, 2008)

Regional Peace Deals & Geopolitical Leverage:

The US brokered the Abraham Accords (2020), normalizing Israel's relations with the UAE, Bahrain, Sudan, and Morocco. This helped stabilize US influence in the Middle East while maintaining strong ties with both Israel and Arab states. (Source: US State Department, 2021)

Oil & Energy Politics:

While the US has strategic ties with Saudi Arabia and other Gulf states, supporting Israel ensures that it has a reliable regional ally independent of oil diplomacy. The Eastern Mediterranean Gas Forum (EMGF), including Israel, Egypt, and Greece, is backed by the US to counter Russian energy influence. (Source: US Energy Information Administration, 2022)

Media & Cultural Influence: US media outlets often frame Israel as a democratic ally, reinforcing public support. Hollywood movies, TV shows, and political discourse further shape the positive image of Israel in American society. (Source: Harvard Kennedy School Study on Media & Public Opinion, 2023)
